A photograph of a food stall, likely in Asia, featuring several whole roasted ducks hanging from metal rods. The ducks have a glossy, golden-brown skin. In the background, a woman in a red shirt and white apron is working behind the counter. The scene is brightly lit, and the focus is on the hanging ducks.

A vibrant, colorful outdoor cafe at night. The building is painted in bright red and blue, with a large archway decorated with string lights and garlands. The archway has a sign that says "PIEDRA NEGRA CANTINA & COCINA". People are sitting at red tables outside, and others are walking by. The scene is lively and festive.
